Point Digital Finance, Inc.

What we do

How does Point protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

Access to your personal and account information is restricted to those employees with a specific need to know that information. We use encryption in the transmittal of your sensitive personal information between your system and ours.

How does Point collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- Initiate an application for a financial product or service
- Give us your contact information

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?

Your choices will apply to everyone on your account.
